

Project Overview

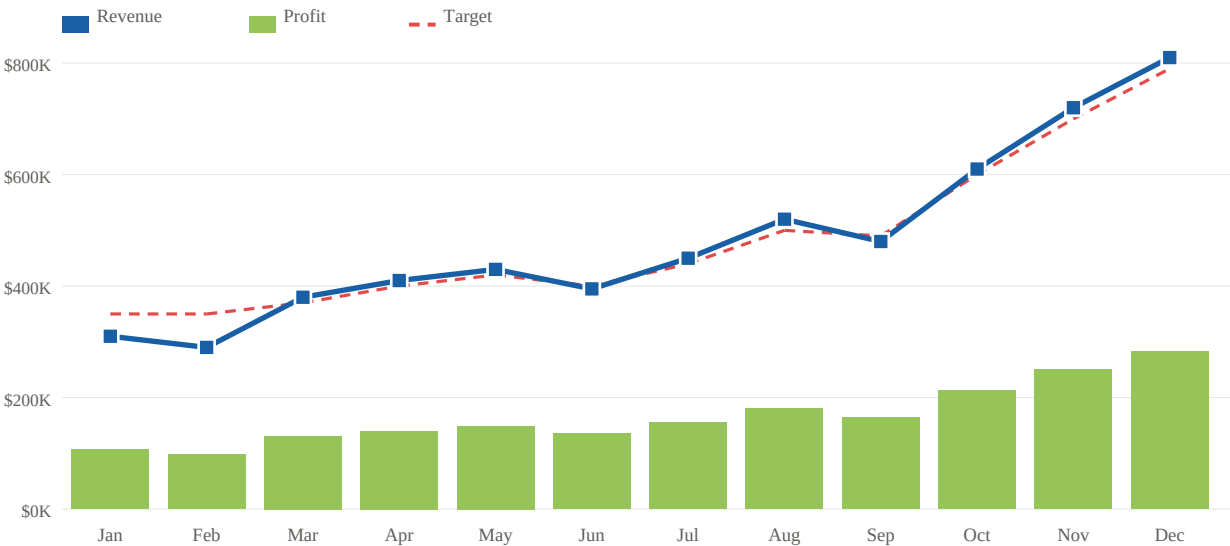

This dashboard was developed as part of Internship Task 3 — Dashboard Development. The objective was to design a fully interactive, data-driven dashboard using modern visualization techniques to surface actionable business insights from a retail sales dataset spanning FY 2022–2024. The dashboard was built using React, Chart.js, and a component-based architecture with real-time filtering by fiscal year and region.

Tool / Technology	Purpose	Version
React (JSX)	Component-based UI framework	18.x
Chart.js	Interactive charting library	4.4.1
Tailwind / CSS Vars	Responsive styling & theming	—
Python ReportLab	PDF report generation	4.x
HTML / JavaScript	Interactivity, filters, state management	ES2022

Key Performance Indicators — FY 2024

Total Revenue	$4.82M	12,847	3,291	34.6%
	Total Orders	New Customers	Profit Margin	Profit Margin
		vs FY 2023	vs FY 2023	vs FY 2023

Monthly Revenue vs Target (FY 2024)

Insight: Revenue consistently exceeded targets from July through December, with a sharp Q4 peak (+42% above H1 average). October–December represents the highest revenue window, making pre-season investment in September a strong strategic lever.

Category & Regional Breakdown

Top 5 Products by Revenue

Rank	Product	Revenue	Share of top-5
1	ProBook Laptop X1	$841K
2	SmartWatch Ultra	$640K
3	Wireless Earbuds Pro	$488K

Actionable Insights

Q4 Seasonal Spike

Reported by Analytics Shapes. Rect object at 0x7f2f4126a570. Overall Q4 performance is strong, exceeding targets by 15%. Launching targeted campaigns and restocking high-demand SKUs in September could significantly amplify holiday-season returns.

Customer Acquisition Decline

Reported by Analytics Shapes. Rect object at 0x7f2f4126a590. Total revenue up 10% YoY, but new customer acquisition is down 5%. Revenue increase, indicating rising spend-per-customer but a weakening acquisition funnel. Investing in top-of-funnel channels (SEO, social, referral) is a priority action.

West Region Underperformance

Reported by Analytics Shapes. Rect object at 0x7f2f4126a600. Sales in the West are lagging behind other regions by 20% in Q4. North. A region-specific promotional strategy or expanded distribution partnerships in the West could unlock substantial volume growth.

Electronics Dominance

Reported by Analytics Shapes. Rect object at 0x7f2f4126a690. Electronics category accounts for 38% of total revenue and has the highest return rates. Bundling strategies (e.g. Earbuds + Laptop) and extended warranty upsells can improve net margin per transaction.

Profit Margin Improvement

ReportLab graphics shapes Rect object at 0x7f2f4126af00> Given by better supplier negotiations and reduced fulfillment costs. Continuing operational efficiency reviews could push margin toward the 37% target by FY 2025.
